

SCHMIDT BRUNET LITZLER: A LAW FIRM DRIVEN BY AN ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT AND COMMITTED TO ITS CLIENTS

Delphine Brunet-Stoclet and Philippe Schmidt, both partners for nearly 20 years, are refocusing on their core practice areas (corporate/M&A, tax, intellectual property and commercial law), and along with their team are joining forces with Bénédicte Litzler (employment and criminal law) to form Schmidt Brunet Litzler, a law firm partnering with clients in the principal areas of business law.

The firm includes 12 lawyers, including 4 partners (Philippe Schmidt, Delphine Brunet-Stoclet, Maria Luisa Arce Torrecilla and Bénédicte Litzler), 7 associates (Aude Le Tannou, Marie André-Nivet, Johanna Segalis, Mélanie Vion, Margaux Fontan, Marion Bombard and Jean Barrouillet), as well as Michel Zaoui, an expert in press law and criminal law, as Of Counsel.

Service-focused lawyers partnering with clients

Schmidt Brunet Litzler has forged privileged relationships with its clients and has an unwavering commitment to their success and development, and defending their interests. The firm is proud of the trust it has built with clients, and continues to nurture those relationships with efficient client-focused teams.

“We are aware of the many issues that small- and medium-sized companies are confronted with, and can provide strategic expertise specifically tailored to our clients’ needs. We as a firm are driven by a strong entrepreneurial spirit, and as such we are inherently committed to serving small- and medium-sized companies, and their leaders with whom we have built strong relationships. Our consistent service-focused teams allow our clients to depend on us to guide them in their development and advise them on both ongoing matters and strategic transactions”, states Delphine Brunet-Stoclet, partner.

Serving clients with expertise and creativity

Schmidt Brunet Litzler represents its clients in litigation proceedings, and advises in corporate, tax, employment, intellectual property and consumer affairs/distribution law matters. The firm’s ability to call upon its collaborative skills and to pool legal experiences allows its lawyers to find solutions that best meet the needs of clients in any given sector or role within a company.

“As trusted partners, our complementary and multidisciplinary teams advise clients throughout their growth and in defending their interests. In order to tailor our advice and strategic approach, we work hard to understand the economic reality of our clients’ businesses, and how they operate and develop”, adds Bénédicte Litzler, partner.

An international outlook is part of Schmidt Brunet Litzler’s DNA

Schmidt Brunet Litzler lawyers are involved in international transactions on a daily basis, advising both French clients on their international growth and foreign clients on their businesses in France.

Schmidt Brunet Litzler is supported through the MSI Global Alliance (MSI) and has been the sole Paris-based member for over 10 years. MSI groups together over 200 independent legal and certified accountant firms each selected based on their skills and diligence (MSI spans across 84 countries and 5 continents).

Philippe Schmidt, partner representing the firm within MSI, explains, “The strength of the MSI network lies in its multidisciplinary nature; our capability to refer a client to a lawyer and a certified accountant who are accustomed to working together adds real value for our clients and allows us to guide them and meet all their needs in matters abroad.”

Schmidt Brunet Litzler, a responsible corporate citizen

In addition to advising its clients, Schmidt Brunet Litzler has, since its origins, been firmly involved in initiatives of general public interest in relation to entrepreneurship (Réseau Entreprendre) and defending human rights (LICRA, INACH).

About Schmidt Brunet Litzler

Schmidt Brunet Litzler is a law firm with a decidedly international outlook. It is a member of the MSI Global Alliance and has offices in Paris and London.

Driven by an entrepreneurial spirit, Schmidt Brunet Litzler lawyers assist clients in the principal areas of business law. Its teams are committed to client service and forming strong client relationships both in ongoing matters and in strategic transactions.

Office

9 rue Alfred de Vigny
75008 Paris
FRANCE

For further information: LinkedIn